

SPECIAL NOTICE

To Chart Agents and The Users of the Los Angeles Terminal Area Chart (TAC)/Flyway

The 52nd edition of the Los Angeles TAC/Flyway has been reprinted to depict corrected Flyway information through the Los Angeles Class B airspace:

See graphic depicting corrected Flyway information at the bottom of this flyer.

The reprinted chart will retain its original edition number, 52, and effective date, December 22, 2005. However, a blue dot will be placed along the top edge of the front panel. Previously issued copies (without the blue dot) are to be destroyed immediately.

The 53rd edition of the Los Angeles TAC/Flyway will be published on July 6, 2006.

Please consult NACO's website, <http://www.naco.faa.gov>, Special Notices page, to download additional copies of this flyer.
